What Not To Do: Updates in Safe Medication Use for Older Adults

Thursday, September 28, 2023

6:30 pm to 8:30 pm

Charlotte NC

Live Webinar

*Co-sponsored by South Piedmont AHEC and
The University of North Carolina Eshelman School of Pharmacy.*

Target Audience

Pharmacists, Nurses, Nurse Practitioners

Goal: This knowledge-based CPE activity will review The Beers Criteria which has long served as a guide to safer prescribing practices in older adults. This program will review relevant updates to the Criteria, which was updated by the American Geriatrics Society in spring 2023.

At the completion of this knowledge-based activity, the participant should be able to:

Pharmacist Course Objectives:

1. Identify additions to the Beers Criteria list of potentially inappropriate medications (PIM) in older adults.
2. Discuss the rationale for adding these medications to the list of PIMs.
3. Summarize additional changes to the Beers Criteria made or proposed in 2023.
4. Evaluate medication use and devise a plan to address drug therapy problems for an example patient scenario.
5. Explain limitations in general knowledge of medication use in older adults that stems from ageism in clinical research.

Instructor(s): Tasha Woodall, PharmD, BCGP, CPP
