

Clinical Precepting Online Series

FREE ONLINE COURSES

These courses are for an interprofessional audience of clinical preceptors who work with students, residents, or other advanced learners who are completing academic or program requirements in a clinical environment. Participants may complete any combination of courses.

Faculty:

Lisa Johnston, PT, MS, DPT, DCE, Professor;
Brenda O Mitchell, Ph D, CCC-SLP, Clinical Assist
Professor; Laurie A Ray, MPT, PhD, Consultant; Kathryn L Sorensen, OTD, OTR/L, ADAC, Assistant Clinical Professor; Charlene Williams, PharmD, BCACP, CDCES, Clinical Associate Professor

Available Courses:

Click each link below to view the course description page and to register online.

Clinical Precepting 101: The Role of the Clinical Preceptor, Host Clinical Site, and Legal Considerations; 2.0 Contact Hours

Clinical Precepting 102: Planning for and Providing Clinical Learning Experiences; 1.50 Contact Hours

Clinical Precepting 103: Communication, Learner Self-Assessment and Preceptor Feedback; 1.50 Contact Hours

Clinical Precepting 104: Managing Difficult Situations in the Clinical Learning Environment; 1.5 Contact Hours

Clinical Precepting: Meeting the Standard: Applying Federal Accessibility Law in Clinical Education and Training; 1.0 Contact Hours